Whereas, as the 2004-2005 school year draws to a close, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives pause to applaud the career achievements of those individuals who are retiring from the field of education; and

Whereas, the Tarkio R-I School District is losing a valuable member of its faculty in May 2005 with the retirement of Twyla Jagger who has devoted several years of her life to the education of this state's young citizens through tireless endeavors as an educator; and

Whereas, Twyla Jagger has taught Title I Reading for thirty-three years at Tarkio R-I, where she is held in high esteem as an educator who demonstrates considerable competence and remarkable degrees of compassion and understanding; and

Whereas, deeply committed to the great cause of learning, Twyla Jagger has touched the lives of countless youngsters by helping them form a solid educational foundation upon which to build in the future; and

Whereas, Twyla Jagger has watched her pupils grow, develop, and mature through the knowledge she has imparted to them both as a teacher and as a friend; and

Whereas, so many young Missourians have left the classrooms of Tarkio R-I fully prepared to face the challenges ahead as a result of the outstanding professional endeavors of Twyla Jagger; and
